

CRISC Boot camp

a Cyber-Sheriff training course from

“Taking care of risky business!”

Risk management is the key!

Understanding risk is key to helping you to spend your time, money & effort in the most worthwhile places. Hence, Risk assessment and treatment planning are vital skills for IT and business professionals who develop and maintain information system controls. The ANSI-standard CRISC qualification is increasingly sought-after for operational and management level positions in organizations of all sizes.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To provide a clear understanding of CRISC certification requirements
- To provide students with an in-depth understanding of the risk identification, assessment, and treatment options & approaches
- To equip them to comfortably, and confidently manage risks to their organizations’ info assets

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Information Security Officers
- Information risk & control analysts
- Info sec & regulatory compliance professionals
- PM’s, business analysts, management/executives

COURSE BENEFITS

- Get prepared for CRISC exam & certification
- Understand & appreciate the importance of proper information risk management
- Be equipped to design and implement risk management processes and practices
- Benefit from hints, tips, and guidance based on practical experience
- Malaysia HRDF-claimable

ONE-DAY COURSE OUTLINE

1. Introduction
2. Risk identification – assigning risk, best practices to protect information
3. Risk assessment – IT risk assessment, documenting results, enterprise risks
4. Risk response – overview, mitigation through technical, procedural, and human controls
5. Risk monitoring & reporting – individual risk, collective risk and enterprise risk-level

For additional information, please contact us at:
marketing@cyber-sheriff.com